

PAN Newsletter, Fall 2012

Today's children are sicker than children were two generations ago. From learning disabilities and autism to childhood cancers and more, a startling number of diseases and disorders are on the rise. And the science leaves little room for doubt: pesticides and other toxic chemicals are contributing to our children's ill health.

Download as PDF »

Source URL: <http://www.panna.org/issues/publication/pan-newsletter-fall-2012>