

PAN Newsletter, Winter 2013

Thanks to you and all the PAN members who have signed petitions, donated and spoken to friends countless times over the past year, there will be no 2,4-D-resistant corn planted in 2013. This is very good news for farmers and rural communities. Together, we've kept Dow AgroSciences' controversial new genetically engineered (GE) crop out of American fields for another year.

Download PDF»

Source URL: <http://www.panna.org/issues/publication/pan-newsletter-winter-2013>