Talking points:

- a) We will continue to call until this issue is resolved.
- b) If the Prime Minister has not made a backroom deal with Dow, he should have no problem following the legal procedures of India and meeting the full justice demands of the survivors.
- c) There is nothing confusing about extraditing Union Carbide or requiring Dow to clean up its mess. It is the law of the land, it does not require deliberation.
- d) Please take action immediately to meet the full demands of the Bhopal survivors.

There is no break in the fast the Bhopalis and many of you have undertaken.
